STIPULATION AND ORDER OF CONFIDENTIALITY AND ADDENDUM

IT IS HEREBY STIPULATED AND AGREED, by and between Plaintiffs and Defendants, that:

1. All information produced by the parties in this action shall be subject to the terms and provisions set forth herein and will be treated as confidential pursuant hereto.

2. The following terms, as used herein, shall, without limiting the generality of the meaning of said terms, be construed as follows:

a. The parties to this action shall mean (i) Plaintiffs and any authorized attorney(s) acting on their behalf; and, (ii) Defendants, as well as the employees and representatives thereof, and any authorized agent(s), attorney(s) or other entities or person(s) acting on their behalf.

b. "Confidential information" means any information, not generally available to the public, pertaining to Plaintiffs or to Defendants' employees, clients or business practices, where such information or documents are designated by the producing party as confidential. Such designation must occur in one of the following ways: (1) information contained in any document or part thereof may be so designated by marking the word "CONFIDENTIAL" on the document or any copy of it delivered to the other party; (2) information set forth in an affidavit may be so designated by including the word "CONFIDENTIAL" in the affidavit; (3) testimony of any witness deposed on oral examination, or a portion thereof, may be designated "CONFIDENTIAL" by making a statement on the record at the deposition or by marking the pertinent portion of the transcript "CONFIDENTIAL" within 30 days of receipt of the transcript and serving a copy of the marked transcript upon the opposing party.

3. Any confidential information produced in this action shall be used solely for the purpose of litigating the above-captioned matter and for no other purpose. The parties expressly agree that confidential information will not be disclosed to any third party during the pendency of this action and thereafter (except as permitted under the conditions specified in Paragraphs 4 and 5).

4. Except as otherwise provided in this Stipulation of Confidentiality, material designated as "confidential information" by either party may be examined only by the following persons:

- a. Plaintiffs;
- b. upon prior written agreement to abide by the terms and provisions of this Stipulation of Confidentiality, as described in paragraph 5 herein, and only to the extent necessary for the prosecution of the instant matter, Plaintiffs' witnesses and independent consultants or experts retained in connection with the instant action by Plaintiffs;

c. Defendants;

d. upon prior written agreement to abide by the terms and provisions of this Stipulation of Confidentiality, as described in paragraph 5 herein, and only to the extent necessary for the defense of the instant matter, Defendants' witnesses and independent consultants or experts retained in connection with the instant action by Defendants;

e. judges, clerks or other members or employees of any court of competent jurisdiction over proceedings in or related to the instant action.

5. Before any person identified in paragraph 4(b) and 4(d) is given access to confidential information, he or she shall sign the "Agreement To Be Bound By Stipulation and Order of Confidentiality" attached hereto stating that he or she has received a copy of and has read this Stipulation of Confidentiality and agrees to be bound by the provisions set forth herein and to submit to the jurisdiction of this Court in connection with the enforcement of the provisions set forth herein. Access to confidential information shall not be given to any person who has not signed such Agreement. No such person shall be allowed to retain any document or other item designated as confidential beyond the time period necessary to accomplish the purpose for which disclosure to such person was permitted.

6. Counsel for the parties represent that they have explained this Stipulation to their clients, and their clients understand and have agreed to abide by this Stipulation.

7. Each party may waive the confidentiality provisions of this Stipulation of Confidentiality as to any information it has designated as confidential or any portion thereof only by explicit written waiver. Such waiver shall not result in a waiver of the confidential status of any other information deemed confidential pursuant to this Stipulation of Confidentiality.

8. Any party that desires relief from the provisions of this Stipulation of Confidentiality or desires further protection with respect to discovery may, if agreement cannot be negotiated, seek appropriate relief from the Court upon no less than fourteen (14) days notice to the opposing party.

9. Prior to filing any documents containing confidential information, the parties must obtain leave of the Court to file such documents under seal. Any confidential information may be filed with the Court without seal if agreed to by the parties or otherwise ordered by the Court.

10. This Stipulation of Confidentiality may be amended by the agreement of the parties in the form of a written amendment to the Stipulation of Confidentiality.

11. This Stipulation of Confidentiality shall remain in full force and effect indefinitely until modified, superseded, or terminated by agreement of the parties hereto or by court order.

12. Within thirty (30) days after the conclusion of this action by final judgment not subject to appeal or by settlement, all documents or other items constituting or containing confidential information and all copies thereof which are in the possession, custody or control of each party or any person gaining possession, custody or control by each party, shall be returned to the opposing party.

13. Nothing in this Stipulation constitutes an admission or agreement that any document or information is subject to discovery or is admissible as evidence in this case. All rulings with regard to admissibility of evidence will be made at the time of trial.

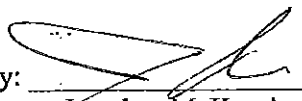

14. Pending court approval of this Stipulation, the parties agree to abide by all of its terms, as if it had been approved by the Court.
